Snowshoe Roar is Back!

For those looking to have some fun in the snow, join Prospect Lions of New Berlin for the 2015 Snowshoe Roar! This event is a timed 5k run/walk that goes through the wooded trails in Malone Park. Medals will be awarded to the top finishers in each age group and trophies are present to the top teams! Be sure to pre-register to get a long sleeve t-shirt. All participants enjoy a Chili luncheon and beverage. The entry fee is just $25.00 when you pre-register before February 10th and $30.00 after. Same day registration is also $30.00. The race starts at 10.00 AM at Malone Park. Click here to register and for more information!

Consolidating Polling Locations for February Election

There will be a primary election for the County Executive on February 17th. Because of the size of the ballot and the low projected turnout, the Common Council approved consolidating the polling locations to one central location. The Spring Primary Election will be held at New Berlin City Hall (3805 S. Casper Drive). The City Hall Location is already a polling place for District 7 and therefore is accessible to handicap residents.

City Hall for the Spring Primary beginning February 2nd and will be available until Friday, February 13th. Photo ID is NOT required to vote absentee in this election. If you have any questions regarding the upcoming election please contact the City Clerk's Office at (262) 786-8610.

In person absentee voting will also begin at

2nd Annual Free Throw Contest

The New Berlin Recreation Department will be holding their 2nd Annual Free Throw Contest on February 12th. This event is open to all New Berlin residents from 3rd to 8th grade. The contest will be held at Elmwood School from 5:45 PM to 7:00 PM. Come enjoy a fun evening of competition and community fellowship. No pre-registration is needed!

Be sure to check out other events and classes that the New Berlin Recreation Department has to offer. See their Winter/Spring Activity Guide online or stop by City Hall to pick up your free copy!
