

New Berlin NOTES

January 26, 2017

www.newberlin.org

Volume 5 No. 2

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Check out their latest Newsletter by clicking here!

RECYCLING CENTER

The Recycling Center is only open on Saturdays from 8AM-4:00PM effective until April 3rd.

2017 GARBAGE

SCHEDULE

The Garbage/Recycling schedule can be found by clicking here.

PET LICENSING

Don't forget your pet license expired on 12/31/16!

Spayed/Neutered cats and dogs are $10 and Non-Spayed/Non-Neutered cats and dogs are $15. More Information.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

The Parks, Buildings and Grounds Department is hiring for Seasonal Parks Maintenance positions. The Recreation Department is also hiring for various positions. Please click here to view the openings.

TAXES & WATER BILLS

The first installment for tax payments are due on January 31st. Water bills are due on the same date. Checks mailed must be postmarked by that date. Please contact the Finance Department with any questions.

Mayoral Proclamations

Miss New Berlin Day

Mayor Ament has Declared Saturday, February 11th, 2017 as Miss New Berlin Day. The "Bling It On" Pageant will be held this day at Nathan Hale High School in West Allis.

See the full proclamation here.

American Heart Month

Mayor Ament declared the month of February 2017 National American Heart Month and invites all citizens to recognize National Wear Red Day on February 3rd 2017 to support women's heart disease awareness and remind all women about their risk for heart disease.

January Business of the Month

What's in the Bowl Pet Shop

This local Pet Shop can take care of all your food, treat and accessory needs for your furry friends. What's In The Bowl Pet Shop is 100% family and locally owned. They stock top rated products at a reasonable price and provide professional consultation and advice to pet guardians. Be sure to bring in your pet to meet the owners and pick up a treat or two!

15136 W National Ave

262-421-5333

Facebook

Website

PROSPECT LIONS 2017 SNOWSHOE ROAR

The Snowshoe Roar is an approximate 5K snowshoe race through wooded trails in Malone Park. This event is timed and part of the Braveheart series. Medals will be awarded to the top finishers in each age group and to the top teams.

Long sleeve T-Shirt guaranteed for those who pre-register. Chili luncheon and beverage included with registration ($25 fee). Rental snowshoes available for the event and after, at a nominal fee. The event will be held regardless of snow or no snow conditions.

For more information: 262-797-8746 or email: johnziino@aol.com

Click the Boxes For More Information

[Meter
Reading](#)

[Water Bill
Schedule](#)

Electronic Drop Off

[Recycling
Center](#)

[Recreation
Guide](#)