Press Release

On Tuesday, May 23, 2017, at 6:00 p.m., the New Berlin Police Department will be hosting its annual Awards Ceremony in the Municipal Courtroom, located inside the Public Safety Building at 16300 W. National Avenue, New Berlin.

This ceremony coincides with National Police Week and this year we celebrate the accomplishments of ten officers and three citizens who have gone above and beyond the call of duty to make New Berlin a safer place to live and work this past year. Two of the citizens will receive awards for their roles in saving a five-year-old boy who nearly drowned at the Princeton Club in February, 2017. We will also be swearing in our newest police officer and several other officers who have recently been promoted to new positions. This ceremony is open to the public and light refreshments will be served afterwards.
